Rhein-Maas-Liga Post 6/2002

Dear Go players between Rhine and Maas,

in the fifth round, Köln consolidated the leading position, but Liège is still close behind. Nevertheless the clear winner of this round is Limburg: the team from the Netherlands won both matches and ascended from the last to the third position in the table. All three teams have the chance to win the championship, so we are expecting a thrilling final round among them next month!

In the last issue, I opened the discussion about the future of the RML Post in the traditional form. Due to a lack of interest, I offered to replace it by an email list. There was nearly no response to my request for comments once more, and I am not sure whether anybody really reads it at all. Hence the RML Post will be discontinued beginning next year. Instead there will be

- a printed time schedule at the beginning of the year,
- an email with the results after each round and
- the webpage with all information (just as now).

Everybody is invited to join the email list. The smooth organization of the RML requires that as many participants as possible get the emails, so please send me your email address as soon as possible!

Best regards, Marcel
